

LEPL Community College Gldani Vocational Training Center

Legal Entity of Public Law - LEPL-Community College "Gldani Professional Training Center" was established by the Ministry of Education and Science of Georgia in 2012 on the basis of Order No. 176 / N of 10 September 10.

The goal of the centre is to provide all levels of professional education, general preparatory, Georgian Language and modern Liberal educational programs and establishment of high quality material-technical base for vocational education.

One of the main targets is preparing highly qualified competitive specialists ,relevant to the requirements of the labor market .

College training programs are adapted to modern business needs and theoretical teachings. Practical skills training is also planned.

To achieve the goal in education, training and development the college provides advantageous conditions for each professional student and cares for its staff and disabled students social conditions, promotes the professional and entrepreneurial partnership in education.

The college promotes dissemination of modern knowledge; cooperates with other Georgian educational institutions; It supports students and teachers participation in different international exchange programs; Implements other powers legislated by Georgian law.

The college signs contracts with its high qualified staff. \the building is equipped with the latest technique for realization in practical studies and the successful execution of computer and other professional programs .There are memorandums between the college and different organizations for students to have a teaching practices there.

Contact us:

www.profgldani.ge

Khizanishvili St.Tbilisi. Georgia

+995 570503001; +995(032) 2140314

Director: Nodar Khizanishvili

